

Communities at the Crossroads XII

Doing More with Less: Investing in Quality of Life in Challenging Fiscal Times

February 19, 2010

Communities at the Crossroads is an annual conference presented by the Indiana Land Use Consortium. Conference themes generally are centered around managing land use in the face of change (economic, fiscal, demographic). This year's focus is exploring how Indiana communities can continue to invest in quality of life issues while facing significant challenges.

Call for Posters!

Tell us what YOU are doing to make Indiana a better place to call home!
This is your chance to show off and help other Indiana communities!

Examples of Poster Submissions:

- Parking ordinances in Monroe County that reduce the amount of paved space
- Land use sustainability research at Purdue
- Impacts of industrial livestock on water quality and rural communities
- National fish habitat partnerships
- Plan for protecting green space in central Indiana

To participate, please submit a poster title and a 2-3 sentence summary of poster content by February 5, 2010 to Linda Prokopy at Purdue University (lprokopy@purdue.edu, 765-496-2221). If you have any questions or need help with making a poster, please contact Linda Prokopy. Please note that poster presenters will need to register for the conference and pay registration fees.
